Finding a job is easy but finding the right job that fits your life and career goals is harder. Explore easy ways to use skills you already have to make your mark in the workplace and move forward in your career. Practice your responses to the three reactions your employer might have when you start to Know Yourself, Be Yourself and Express Yourself at work.

Instructor: Career Coach, Writer, and Workshop Leader Denise Felder (@DeniseMpls) has dedicated more than 15 years to helping Everyday People make positive choices that impact their lives and communities. Her workshops encouraged job seekers to advance in careers that fit their personal and financial goals.
